Residents urged to download the new contact-tracing app

RESIDENTS in Sefton have been urged by health officials and the government to download the new contact-tracing app.

The app, known as NHS Covid-19, instructs users to self-isolate for 14 days if it detects they were near to someone who has the virus.

It will also allow people to check their symptoms, try to book a test and 'check-in' to places they visit using a QR code system.

However, the government confirmed it is not mandatory to self-isolate if you receive an alert.

The app is available to those aged 16 and over in multiple languages. It forms a central part of the NHS Test and Trace service in England – identifying contacts of those who have tested positive for coronavirus.

The app can alert people about their exposure to people infected with Covid-19 faster than human contact tracers. It uses Bluetooth to identify phones nearby, and can tell what distance other people are from you.

The app has been designed with user privacy in mind, so it tracks the virus not people, and uses the latest in data security technology to protect privacy.

The app does not hold personal information such as your name, address or date of birth, and only requires the first half of your postcode to ensure local outbreaks can be managed. No personal data is shared with the government or the NHS.

Designers of the NHS Covid-19 App, said: "This new version has a range of features which will quickly alert you if you're at risk of coronavirus. The more people who use it, the better it works. We are confident that every person who downloads the app will be helping to protect themselves and their loved ones."

SMASH AND GRAB DAYTIME TERROR RAID AT JEWELLERS

Robber threatened owner with power tool before cycling off with tens of thousands of pounds worth of diamond jewellery

Report by Henry James

DETECTIVES have released a CCTV image of a man they want to speak to following a "terrifying" smash and grab robbery at an Ormskirk jewellers, which saw the store owner threatened with an angle grinder and tens of thousands of pounds worth of goods taken.

The raid happened at the David Moss Jeweller shop, Moorgate on Friday, September 25 shortly after 4.30pm when a man cut through a side window with an angle grinder power tool and began stealing items of jewellery.

The business owner then came outside to challenge the man and initially chased him away.

But as the shop owner returned to the store he was then threatened with the power tool. The suspect then continued to take more items through the broken window.

He then made off with tens of thousands of pounds of platinum and white gold diamond jewellery on a black mountain bike.

He cycled off at speed in the direction of the town centre, travelling via the Marks & Spencer store car park, the alleyway leading to Moor Street, right at the clock tower onto Burscough Street, along the alleyway by Wetherspoon's onto Leyland Way to Railway Road, over the bridge and left onto the station approach, past the train station and onto the nearby footpaths.

The suspect is described as white, around 5ft 7inches tall, of a medium build and aged in his early 40s.

He was wearing a black face covering, black T-shirt, black pants, sunglasses and a black cap and was carrying a black and white JD sports carrier bag on his back and wearing blue gloves.

Detectives are now appealing for any witnesses or anyone who recognises the man in the CCTV still to come forward.

They also want to hear from anybody who has been offered any of the stolen items in the photographs for sale.

A statement from 'David, staff and family' on the company's social media page thanked other businesses on Moorgate, members of the public and the police for their support.

It said: "We are relieved to say that no one was physically harmed although quite a bit of damage

Landfill plan decision delayed until site visit

Parbold Hill steep incline sign at proposed entrance

Report by Henry James

A DECISION on a proposal which campaigners claim will allow “tipping of 200,000 tonnes of inert waste” at Parbold Hill has been postponed by Lancashire County Council Development Control Committee.

Councillors decided to defer the decision until after they had visited the site.

Residents hailed the decision as, “good common sense” claiming the proposal will “blight or destroy the well-known beauty spot” which is well-known for its views.

Maybrook Developments say the site needs further landfilling to stop pollution leaks, but campaigners from Stop Parbold Hill Landfill claim they were unable to produce any independently verified evidence.

A former planning officer and local resident, John Sloane, was one of 15 people who made statements read out to councillors by officers at an online meeting.

MP Rosie Cooper’s statement said it was unfair on the residents of Lancashire to make a decision without visiting the site.

John Sloane highlighted “failings” in the council officer’s report, noted that the claimed pollution “doesn’t currently occur” and condemned the proposals.

He claimed: “A serious omission is any critical examination of the amount to be tipped or for the 7metres of tipping directly in front of the lay-by which would destroy views for which the site is famous.”

Mark Bolton’s company, has installed landfill site infrastructure for 16 years. He lives locally and sent a statement stating: “I question the need for repair because, all the information supplied to Lancashire County Council is from the applicant.

“There is no formal validation of the proposals from the Environment Agency which is highly irregular. The Environment Agency can only say there’s a “probability” that repairs may be needed because as yet no investigations have been conducted.”

He said adding more waste to the already unstable Parbold Hill site is a risk.

A spokesman for the applicants Maybrook Developments responded: “The statement from the Stop Parbold Hill Landfill is composed of various inaccuracies, the most notable being that the proposals do not intend to deposit seven metres of inert materials adjacent to the layby.

“We fear this is intended to cause further defamation to the application, along with depictions of the depositing of household waste which are shown along the highway adjacent to the site.

“The depositing of inert materials will take place where the land has dropped to unsafe and unmanageable levels.

“The material to be depositing will allow a consistent contour of the site and will in no way impact the views.

“The reality is that once the restoration works have completed the difference in the site would be almost unnoticeable from the lay-by. While the site may appear picturesque from the lay-by it is anything but. The site continues to create contaminated water which requires pumping and treatment before entering the water system, a process which should have ceased years ago.

“The Environment Agency have identified the site as hazardous and on numerous occasions have attempted to engage with previous owners and operators without success.

“The current applicant is the only site owner to engage with the Environment Agency and has worked with them to find a suitable solution.”

Work set to restart soon on regeneration project

Final agreement agreed on how scheme can begin with contractors expected back on site with weeks

Report by Henry James

‘SIGNIFICANT’ progress has been made on the Skelmersdale town centre regeneration scheme and work will begin on site again soon, the borough council has said.

Following “detailed” negotiations with their partners the council is ‘pleased’ to confirm that all parties concerned with the retail scheme have reached final agreement on how it should proceed.

The contract documents will be signed as soon as possible.

Building contractors will then be back on site about four to six weeks after that to start construction work again.

Councillor Ian Moran, leader of West Lancashire Borough Council, said: “We appreciate that people living in Skelmersdale want to see progress on the town centre and I can assure them that work is going on behind the scenes to make it happen.

“Once that is completed we will all be able to see the construction teams back on site to build our great new town centre.”

Alex Jaques, development director at St. Modwen, said: “Everyone at St. Modwen has been working on this development, and is extremely pleased with progress so far. We look forward to work starting on site again soon.”

Phase one will see new shops created to house Lidl and B&M Bargains, and another retail unit will also be constructed.

A new play area will be created in Tawd Valley Park and a new high street will be provided to link West Lancashire College with the rest of the town centre. Enhancements will also be made to the public areas outside Skelmersdale Library.

While construction work is carried out on phase one, plans will also start to be developed for future phases and the people of Skelmersdale and the Borough as a whole will be consulted on these in due course.

The town centre redevelopment scheme is a partnership between the Borough Council, Homes England and developer St Modwen, and supported by the Lancashire Local Enterprise Partnership.

Operation launched to target illegal and nuisance use of off-road motorbikes

FOLLOWING the success of the local motorcycle nuisance campaign in West Lancashire, a force wide operation has been rolled out to address the illegal and nuisance use of off-road motorbikes, scrambler bikes and quads bikes across the region.

Codenamed Operation Rider, as it will be known in West Lancashire, will allow the force to have a consistent approach to motorcycle nuisance.

The operation will see officers patrolling areas which residents have already highlighted as an area of concern, including cycle tracks, housing estates, wasteland and industrial estates.

Officers will utilise a range of powers to seize any bikes that are being used illegally and prosecute those committing offences.

As part of the operation, a dedicated email address has been set up and officers are asking the public to report any anti-social activity or nuisance riders to Oprider@lancashire.pnn.police.uk.

Reports can also be made online to lancashire.police.uk/reporton-line, via 101 – or, if there is an imminent danger, 999 should be dialled.

Geographic Inspector Ellie Kanoun said: “We have been operating a successful motorcycle hotline for some time, but it has become apparent that it is now not just a local issue but county-wide and, therefore, we will also be working with partners to combat this.

“We will collate and examine any information sent to us and treat it with confidence.

“People can also submit photographs, but we must stress that images should only ever be taken if it is safe to do so.”

Education will also play a key part in the countywide motorcycle nuisance campaign. Signage has been produced informing of the Section 59 Police Reform Act, enabling bikes to be seized if ridden in an antisocial or dangerous way.

There will also be an educational leaflet aimed at parents giving advice around bike safety and potential offences plus a social media campaign.

I'd like to say a huge thank you to everyone on and around Moorgate who helped us during the incident, from the lady who ran with me to the top of Burscough street chasing the thief, to those who called the police so quickly to the incredibly kind members of the public who swept the street and helped return items that had been dropped as he made off.

“We must also thank the incredible officers from Lancashire Police who were at the shop in what felt like an instant and have already put in so much work into investigating this incident. The appreciation for everyone who has assisted us genuinely cannot be understated.

“As always a final thanks goes out to all the messages of support that we have already received from so many customers old and new.”

DC Kelly Rosenthal, of South CID, said: “This was a terrifying incident for the jewellery store owner and he has been left very shaken up by it.

“Thankfully, he was not injured during the ordeal but we need to catch the man responsible.

“Although there has been no arrest made at this stage enquiries are progressing and we need the public's help identifying the man in the CCTV still.

“We also want to hear from other jewellers in the area if they have been offered any of the stolen items for sale.”

Anyone with information is asked to email 2496@lancashire.pnn.police.uk or call 101, quoting log 0994 of September 25, 2020. Alternatively, call independent charity Crimestoppers, in confidence, on 0800 555111.

The fence that cut off the path (left) has now been removed.

Footpath reopened after concerns for safety of children

Report by Tom Martin

A TEMPORARY fence that cut off access to a footpath has been removed following safety concerns raised by local parents after it forced children to cross a busy road in Skelmersdale.

Gleeson Homes, which is in the middle of building 72 homes at the former Skelmersdale Sports Centre, on Digmoor Road, say the path was reopened on September 15.

The metal fence had been erected as part of the ongoing housing development.

MP Rosie Cooper had described it as "dangerous" and she wrote to both Gleeson Homes and Lancashire County Council to raise her concerns.

A spokesperson for Gleeson Homes said: "Gleeson's appointed principal contractor applied to Lancashire County Council for a footpath notice in order to carry out essential drainage works.

"To carry out the works the temporary closure of the footpath was required and a pedestrian diversion, which was approved by the council was put in place.

"The footpath reopened on September 15 following the completion of the works, with the condition of the footpath also improved."

The fence that cut off the pathway caused a problem for local residents because it was a well-used route.

The path led from the bus stop on Gillibrands Road at Daniels Lane/Almond Tree to the pedestrian crossing over Digmoor Road to Banksbarn.

Parents from Banksbarn were particularly concerned because children used the route to get to the bus stop.

'Pagoda' demolition to go ahead in 2021

Report by Henry James

WORK to demolish the 'pagoda' at Wheatshaf Walk in Ormskirk will go ahead in 2021 council chiefs say, after the original project was put on hold after lockdown.

A spokesman for West Lancashire Borough Council said: "We are continuing to work on our exciting plans to improve the public areas around Wheatshaf Walk.

"While it was not ultimately possible to remove the pagoda as quickly as originally planned following the easing of lockdown, it will now be included in our ambitious overall works for Wheatshaf Walk which will begin in early 2021.

"These will feature new paving, lighting and seating and an enhancement of the existing wheatshaf stone motif as important recognition of its history.

"We will closely liaise with the businesses about final proposals and to minimise any disruption.

"The costs of the works have not yet been finalised, but there is no reason to believe costs have doubled at this point in time, as suggested.

"We very much share the passion for West Lancashire to be a great place to live and work and because of this we welcome comments and listen to suggestions from people living and working in the borough when we are planning to make improvements.

"We held a public consultation on proposals for the improvements at Wheatshaf Walk, including the potential removal of the pagoda in August 2019.

"The majority of people who responded were in favour of the option to remove the pagoda as part of the new scheme.

"Therefore the decision was made to move forward with those improvements incorporating the removal of the pagoda to open up the space, improve the visibility of the businesses there, and create more flexibility about how the space can be used."

The 'pagoda' in Wheatshaf Walk.

The Our West Lancashire group on West Lancashire Council have renewed their call for a 'meaningful' public consultation over the demolition plans saying there is now adequate time to do so."

Our West Lancashire Knowsley ward spokesman, Neil Pye, said: "The council's previous consultation was so poor at engaging the public that only 28 responses were made, yet hundreds commented on OWL's social media when the demolition announcement was made.

"This fresh delay gives the council plenty of time to organise an effective and engaging public consultation that will provide the updated costs of including the pagoda demolition in the Wheatshaf Walk improvement scheme. We need to be sure that money spent in our town centres is spent wisely and people should be given their say on this."

'Dry swimming lessons' plan to help youngsters prepare for return to pool

A COMPANY that provides swimming for primary schools across West Lancashire is planning 'dry lessons' to allow youngsters to learn about water safety, swimming strokes and Olympic swimming champions.

Emma Walmsley and Kirsty Evans at Shares Lancashire Ltd, based in Skelmersdale, said: "We are excited to get our schools back swimming, it has been a long time away for all of us and we are raring to go.

"We provide swimming for the primary schools in the local area and teach our lessons at Nye Bevan Swimming Pool. This term, before we get back to the pool schools will start with four weeks of dry lessons linking to the National Curriculum outcomes for swimming, they will have the opportunity to learn about water safety, swimming strokes and Olympic swimming champions.

"We are looking forward to getting our Able, Gifted and Talented Club up and running again. This provides extra opportunities for children in the Skelmersdale and Up Holland area who exceed in swimming and gives them the chance to flourish and work towards the Swim England Bronze, Silver and Gold Awards and better still move onto swimming at club level.

"We are excited to see all our schools at the pool very soon!"

Burscough Library open again after six months

Report by Henry James

BURSCOUGH Library reopens today Wednesday, September 30, after closing in response to the national coronavirus lockdown earlier this year.

The library, on Mill Lane, Burscough will be open Monday 9am-7pm, Wednesday 9am-5pm, Thursday 9am-1pm, Friday 9am-5pm, Saturday 9am-1pm. It will be closed Tuesdays and Sundays.

People can use computers without an appointment, but may have to queue before being able to enter as part of new social distancing arrangements, which limit the number of people allowed in at any one time.

The Six of the Best service, a selection of up to six books chosen by library staff, will still be available.

These can be collected at the entrance of the library.

People will need to speak with library staff, see the information on the libraries website, or call 0300 123 6703 between 9am and 5pm Monday to Friday to arrange this service.

Public computers will also be available for 45 minute sessions starting on the hour, on a first come, first served basis.

It may be possible to extend sessions upon request if nobody else is waiting.

Some of the libraries may also be able to make space available for people to sit and study, and make use of the free Wi-Fi. People should ask their local library for details as arrangements vary depending upon the amount of space available.

The music and drama lending service available to subscribing groups, such as choirs, orchestras and drama societies is also available again, though limited to collections held by Lancashire libraries. Orders can be placed online, and sets can be returned to any library.

People are required to wear a face covering when visiting a library unless they are exempt. Children under 11 will not be required to cover their faces. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

Everyone will also be asked to provide their name and contact details to support the NHS Test and Trace system.

This can be by scanning a poster in the library using the new NHS Covid-19 app.

Anyone wanting to return books can do this by placing them in the returned books container at the entrance of the libraries that are open. Books will be quarantined for 72 hours before they are re-shelved.

Customers will not be charged for any overdue items. Library users are being asked to hold onto their books until they can return them to an open library and not to post them through letter boxes or leave them outside libraries. Books can be renewed online or by calling 0300 123 6704.

Lorry driver jailed for causing fatal crash on M58 while distracted at wheel

Leon Stott was adjusting heat and radio controls in his HGV so failed to see speed warning signs before ploughing into standing traffic

Report by Henry James

A LORRY driver has been jailed for causing a fatal collision on the M58 while being distracted by changing the heat levels and radio controls in his vehicle while at the wheel.

The collision resulted in the death of an elderly woman and serious injuries to three other people.

Leon Stott, 35, of St David's Road, Leyland (pictured) was sentenced to three years and four months imprisonment at Preston Crown Court after previously pleading guilty to causing death by dangerous driving and two counts of causing serious injury by dangerous driving in July.

The incident happened at around 10.10am on Tuesday, January 8, 2019 in queuing traffic on the M58, following a previous collision around an hour before at junction 3, near Bickerstaffe, which resulted in the deaths of Joe Cairns, 14, from Radcliffe and Anne Kerr, 50, from Southport.

A partial road closure had been put place between junction 3 and junction 4, and a 50mph speed limit had been introduced while the first incident was being investigated and to allow the built-up traffic to move.

After entering the M58 at Orrell, Stott drove his lorry along on the westbound carriageway and after setting the cruise control at 56mph, diverted his attention from the road and subsequently, the 50mph speed alert signs whilst he adjusted the heat, ventilation and radio controls in his HGV.

As a result, he did not see the speed warning or the standing traffic ahead. His lorry ploughed into the back of a Ford Transit van which then in turn went into the back of a Ford Fiesta. This was subsequently shoved into the back of an Audi A6. The crash caused serious damage to the cars and a number of people were badly injured.

The Fiesta driver, 91-year-old Margaret Harrison from Orrell died from her injuries just over a week later on January 19.

The Transit driver, a 54-year-old man from Goldbourne, suffered serious back and chest injuries, with the passenger, a 51-year-old man from Radcliffe, receiving a cut to his head. The Audi driver, 40, from Bradford sustained skull and facial fractures along with a chest injury.

A HGV and another Ford Fiesta were also affected but thankfully, none of the occupants were injured.

Head of Road Policing at Lancashire Constabulary, Ch Insp Sue Bushell said: "What Stott did showed blatant disregard for the safety of others and himself.

"While we don't know the exact time period he took his eyes off the road when the lorry was on cruise control, we know it must have been for a good length of time given he missed the speed warning which meant he wasn't able to react, so didn't brake at all.

"His lorry smashed into the back of the Transit van which then caused a domino effect of other vehicles crashing into each other.

"There are no winners in this case as not only does Stott, who admitted what he'd done straightaway, have to live with the fact his irresponsible actions caused the death of Margaret Harrison, there is also the lasting impact on those who were left injured.

"One of the men affected suffers from post-traumatic stress disorder and has struggled to get back into a vehicle, another has not been able to work in the same way as before and suffers with an ongoing back injury.

"What happened will continue to affect everyone involved for years to come."

Man who stabbed his friend to death convicted of murder

Report by Henry James

A MAN has been convicted of murdering his friend by stabbing him as the pair celebrated a birthday at a Skelmersdale home.

Janis Mikitovs was celebrating his 36th birthday on March 28 and had invited his friend Kristaps Muzikants to come to his house in Skelmersdale the evening before to celebrate with him.

But the celebrations turned to tragedy after Mikitovs stabbed his friend following a night of drinking.

Mr Muzikants, 30, died in the early hours of March 28 as a result of a stab wound to the abdomen.

A post-mortem examination showed he had suffered a single 23-centimetre knife wound which penetrated his liver and sliced through a major vein, causing catastrophic internal bleeding.

Mikitovs initially claimed to police called to the scene that his friend had gone outside and he had found him injured in the street. He later changed his story but claimed he had no knowledge of how Mr Muzikants got his injury.

Mikitovs, 36, of Acregate, Skelmersdale, had denied murder but was convicted on Wednesday, (September 23) following a trial at Preston Crown Court. He will be sentenced later.

Detective Chief Inspector Gareth Willis, of the Force Major Investigation Team, said: "What happened in the early hours of March 28 was an absolute tragedy and my thoughts remain with Mr Muzikants loved ones. I would like to thank the family for the dignity they have shown throughout these proceedings and I hope the verdict will give them some chance of moving on with their lives.

"While Janis Mikitovs has never given an explanation for his actions in that house, the evidence clearly showed that he and he alone was responsible for the senseless killing of his friend and I am grateful to the jury for considering the facts so carefully in reaching their unanimous guilty verdict.

"This case sadly once again shows all too clearly the devastating consequences that can result from violence involving the use of a knife."

In a tribute Mr Muzikants' family said: "Kristaps was a really nice person, he was always happy.

"When we found out about Kristaps' death our family was devastated. What has happened to him is unbelievable and is still very hard to accept.

"Our family is longing to see his face, his smile and hear his voice.

"My sister and myself both have children and they are missing their uncle and they say that he is an 'angel who now lives in heaven'.

"We all miss him so much."

A community with a zest for later life

An apartment at The Sailings in Southport is far more than just a new home. Our community offers a range of 1, 2 and 3-bedroom apartments in a safe, secure and happy environment, with a circle of friends right on your doorstep.

In uncertain times, that's more important than ever. Many of our Homeowners have told us how much it helps to have such a strong sense of community and a friendly management team on-site 24/7 365 days a year to provide advice, assistance and moral support.

Have more fun, make more friends

Enjoy the best of both worlds: a beautiful, self-contained apartment of your own; and a thriving community offering new friendships, social occasions and safe activities on your doorstep that you can dip into whenever you want to.

Enjoy relaxing in the Homeowners' lounge, hair salon or therapy suite, or dine in the table service restaurant, with freshly prepared dishes every day.

"It's better for both of us here. I can go cycling. Jean can walk to the shops and there are plenty of people here who she can talk to. We've made friends already. We should have moved years ago." John and Jean Geddes, The Sailings in Southport

Less maintenance, more 'me time'

When the maintenance of your house and garden become a full-time job, you can find yourself lacking the time and energy to do anything else.

Jean Geddes continues "We had a big garden and I was doing everything. I was out all afternoon and half the night. I didn't want to be tied to the house. I wanted to go out and do things."

At The Sailings you no longer have to worry about maintenance or mowing, leaving you to enjoy doing more of the things you love.

Safety and security

One of the aspects that appeals to many Homeowners is that we can help create tailored personal care packages to suit individuals' needs. Be it short-term support after an operation, or more regular, long-term personal care. Together with our local care partner, we ensure a flexible solution to suit you.

During the UK lockdown, our team members shopped for our Homeowners, collected prescriptions and created 'pop-up shops' to provide a safe and easy way to pick up everyday essentials.

"I was shielding so I couldn't go to the shops or anything but I've been having meals delivered to my apartment from the restaurant. They've done it very well." Edna Giddens, The Sailings in Southport

Pets are welcome too

We know that animals are often part of the family, so we're always happy to welcome well-behaved pets at The Sailings.

Award-winning approach

Three of our communities have won Gold, Silver and Bronze Awards for the Best Retirement Development in the UK, at the WhatHouse? Awards. The judges recognised our unique approach to independent living, praising the fact that Homeowners don't have to compromise on their independence, privacy and social life.

With all the time in the world, a lively social calendar, the company of friendly people and the reassurance of support when you need it, you can truly live life your way at The Sailings in Southport.

Husband and wife team scoop awards for healthy drinks

Report by Tom Martin

A HEALTHY drink provider from Skelmersdale has won three awards at the 2020 Nourish Awards.

Nutra Kombucha was recognised for its Butterfly Pea Tea, Ginger and Turmeric and Apple and Ginger Kombuchas.

The husband and wife team behind Nutra Kombucha, Colin and Margaret Wynne, were delighted to take home the gongs.

Kombucha is a fermented, lightly effervescent, sweetened black or green tea drink commonly consumed for its supposed health benefits.

Colin said: "We are proud and delighted to have won this award."

"It's been the culmination of a lot of hard work from a company which is committed to creating healthy drink products which are nutritious and tasty."

"It's humbling to be in the company of the other nominees and getting to know more about their products too."

The winners and runners up were judged by qualified and practising nutritionists and leaders in the food, drink and business sectors.

Butterfly Pea Tea Kombucha was Commended by the judges in the Health Drinks and Shots category and also achieved a Merit Award in the Gut Friendly & Fermented Foods category.

While their Ginger and Turmeric Kombucha achieved a People's Choice Award and their Apple and Ginger Kombucha was a finalist.

Nutra Kombucha was founded by Colin and Margaret, who are originally from Liverpool, in 2017.

Colin is a Type 2 diabetic who was searching for

Colin and Margaret Wynne with a selection of their products an alternative to drinks that were full of sugar, additives and preservatives and they began brewing kombucha from their kitchen at home.

Kombucha gained very quickly in popularity and it was not long before demand outstripped supply.

Fast forward to 2020 and the company is going strong and working from a factory unit in Skelmersdale.

Nutra Kombucha sell their products online on their website at www.nutrakombucha.co.uk and through Farmer's Markets and selected retailers in Liverpool, Warrington, Wirral, Billinge, Maghull and Ormskirk.

Retailers have a duty to ensure shoppers wear masks

As a resident of Skelmersdale I often have the need to visit the Concourse for provisions including shopping for my in-laws who are particularly vulnerable.

Despite government legislation during the pandemic, I find it quite disturbing to see the level of people using the Concourse (among other shopping venues) without wearing any form of face covering and blatantly disregarding the requirement.

I am quite sure shops do not want to rock the boat as this could adversely affect their profits, but they have a duty to protect their customers as do the management of the shopping centre itself.

Neither the security within the centre or the shops themselves are challenging shoppers to mask up or refusing to serve them.

I fail to understand how the shops themselves are not being held responsible and being fined for allowing this to happen, especially in view of the fact the public are now subject to a fine for not complying. After all shops are the ones profiting from the footfall.

I wonder if there are any current plans to introduce fines for the retailers and/or police this better to ensure the few who are 'rebellious' have no choice but to toe the line and protect us all.

I for one would feel safer knowing I was less likely to be compromised while buying my essentials.

Skelmersdale

Virgin Care investment in healthcare is welcome but concerns still remain

My thanks go to Champion reporter Tom Martin for attempting to find out exactly how Virgin Care are managing the running of the clinics and services they have been contracted to cover for the NHS through the Clinical Commissioning Group.

It is good to know that Virgin Care have spent £75 million in investing in the NHS and have taken nothing out for profit.

I am still wondering though, if they are paying the same numbers of staff needed and whether they are paying for their pensions when they reach retirement age.

I am also concerned that if they are not offered the contract for these services in the future, whether they will sue the council as they did a few years ago in southern England.

If Richard Branson is indeed wanting to really help our treasured NHS, by donating some of his millions as a genuine philanthropist, then I offer apologies for ever doubting his intentions.

Judy Ingman,
By email

Tawd Valley park really looks a treat

Over the weeks of the Covid 19 lockdown period, a lot of people have discovered and used the recently laid out pathways in Tawd Valley Park.

Especially on a nice day, it was great to see families (some pushing prams), older people and young ones, dog walkers, cyclists, all keeping the social distancing requirement and just enjoying the park.

So, to the local council Park Rangers, the Friends of Tawd Valley Park, the contractors who laid the footpaths and anyone else involved, a big 'thank you'.

You have really improved and opened up this area, right in the middle of Skelmersdale.

Tar is replacing the block paving

I wonder how many people have noticed the tar that is replacing our new block paving in Ormskirk town centre?

Each time a retail shop is converted above into student accommodation the builder takes the block paving up and replaces it with tar.

The block paving should be replaced like for like and the council should make this a condition before the work is carried out.

Why hasn't anybody from the council objected to this destruction of our town centre?

It is shameful that the shops are closing but the town still needs to look respectable.

Jean Taylor,
Ormskirk

Christmas will happen - we can be assured of that!

Headlines tell us 'Christmas will be cancelled this year!' - it won't!

Throughout the last 2,000 years many have discovered the season of peace and joy, even in the most challenging times.

During the First World War the guns fell silent on Christmas Day 1914 as two armies met in no man's land, sharing gifts and even playing football together - a time of humanity in a period of insanity.

In 1918, not even the arrival of Spanish Flu could cancel 'the greatest story ever told'.

Over a century later and the impact from Covid-19 is no different.

This December, we have an opportunity to value what really matters as we join the celebration, perhaps without the work parties, large family dinners, mountains of presents and pantomimes.

Whatever happens, I expect we'll all cherish Christmas that little bit more next year as we move to our 'new normal.'

A safe, peaceful and joyful Christmas 2020 to everyone!

Hilary and Bryan,
Birkdale

Animal charity warns people not to buy 'poorly bred' kittens

Report by Danielle Thompson

CAT lovers are being warned about the risks of buying 'poorly bred' kittens online during the pandemic.

West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper is supporting the charity Cats Protection's warning about the risk of unscrupulous online sellers capitalising on the demand for 'lockdown pets' which may make it easier for them to sell kittens which may be sick or too young to be parted from their mothers.

Ms Cooper said: "I'm pleased to back Cats Protection's campaign to raise awareness of unscrupulous sellers who may be selling poorly kittens to unsuspecting buyers."

"I would urge my West Lancashire constituents who are looking to buy a pet cat to follow the kitten checklist and if possible to consider adopting from an animal charity such as Cats Protection."

Cats Protection's head of advocacy and government Relations Jacqui Cuff added: "With so many people now working from home for the foreseeable future, it's understandable that many would want to bring a new pet cat into their household. But buyers must be aware that this demand creates the ideal conditions for unscrupulous sellers who put profit before welfare."

"These profit-driven sellers may be selling kittens which are sick or too young to be separated from their mothers, which can lead to high vet bills. Sadly, some kittens bred in poor conditions may not survive, which can be incredibly distressing for their new owner."

"Unscrupulous sellers have always existed, but the COVID-19 restrictions can give them an extra layer of invisibility. Before the lockdown, buyers may have heard alarm bells if a seller offered to deliver a kitten to them, or said it was not possible to view the kitten with its mother. But the guidelines and restrictions on visiting other households means it is now very difficult to be sure of a kitten's background.

Online sellers are re-homing kittens too early

"Before the pandemic, we may have been seeing moggies selling for around £50, but nowadays a quick scan of online adverts will find moggies for sale for hundreds of pounds. It is clear to us that there are individuals out there who are intent on putting profit before welfare."

To make adopting from a charity safe and easy, Cats Protection's Hands-free Homing scheme ensures cats and kittens can be re-homed following social distancing measures.

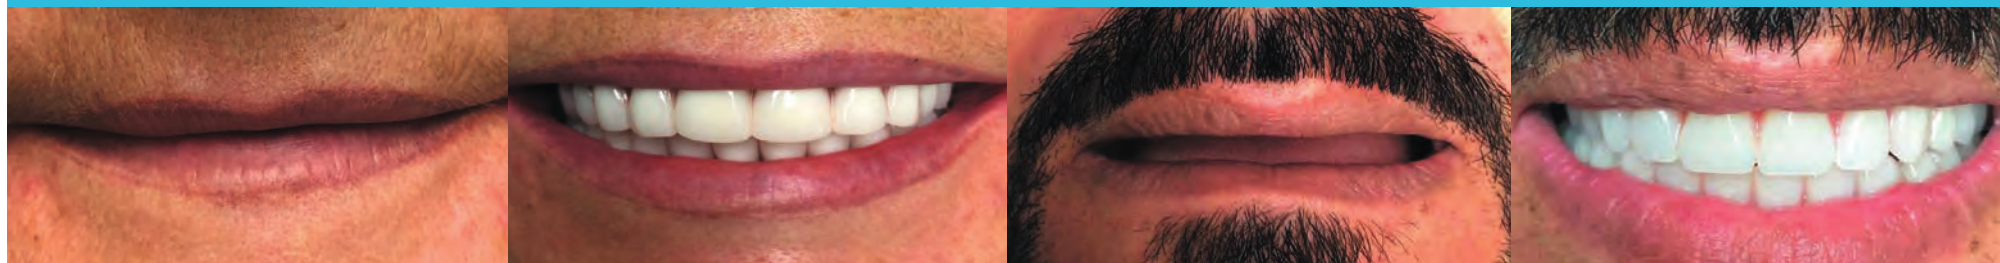

Jacqui added: "Adopting from Cats Protection means new owners have the peace of mind of knowing their new pet has had all the necessary vet checks."

Cats Protection advises buyers to think carefully before purchasing a kitten from an online advert and refer closely to its kitten checklist.

For more information, visit the charity's website.

NHS staff go the extra mile in charity walk!

NHS staff from Southport Hospital have raised more than £16,100 by walking from Southport to Liverpool.

Craig Alty, Danielle Cannon, Daniella Nesovici, Phil Power, Rachel Power, Helen McKenna, Helen Gillan, Tanisha Ashcroft and Clare Hill took part in the 20-mile, eight-hour journey to raise money for a new minibus for patients at the North West Regional Spinal Injuries Centre in Southport.

They walked through Birkdale, Formby, Crosby, Waterloo, Bootle, Everton and Liverpool city centre, finishing at the Albert Dock.

Registered nurse Craig Alty said: "Wow, what a day! We did it! We managed to do the walk in just under eight hours, weather conditions were just right, and thankfully not too many blistered feet."

"We all enjoyed it, with one goal in mind - the finish point!"

Animal sanctuary launches 'Buy a Bale' campaign

IT'S that time of year again when Woodlands are stocking up on food and bedding for their animals to keep them warm and fed over the winter months.

They are reintroducing their Buy A Bale Appeal, which allows you to donate one of three amounts, which will go towards the increased bills the charity incurs over the winter.

The animal charity, based on Sandy Lane in Holmeswood, spend around £3,400 annually on hay and straw for their animals.

A spokesperson for the charity said: "If you are able to donate, the team and of course the animals will be very grateful and more importantly - cozy and warm in their beds with full tummies!"

To 'Buy a Bale', visit the charity's website for more information.

Thousands set to get flu jabs in West Lancashire ahead of winter months

Experts say free vaccine will be 'the most comprehensive programme in UK history'

Report by Henry James

GP surgeries and pharmacies across West Lancashire are starting to vaccinate thousands of people against flu, while ensuring that coronavirus social distancing measures are followed.

This year will be the most comprehensive flu programme in UK history, with more people eligible for the free NHS vaccine than ever.

If people are eligible, they should not call their practice because their GP practice will be in touch to let them know the plans for them to get their vaccine.

Those eligible for a free flu vaccination this year are:

- People who are on the shielded patient list and members of their household
- All school year groups up to and including year 7
- People aged over 65
- Pregnant women
- Those with pre-existing conditions including at-risk under-2-year olds
- Those who receive a carer's allowance, or are the main carer for an older or disabled person who may be at risk if they get sick

Later this year, dependent on supply, people aged 50 to 64 will also be invited to get the flu vaccination. If people are in this age group, they should wait for their invitation and do not call for an appointment.

Dr Peter Gregory, local GP and chair of NHS West Lancashire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG), said: "With more people eligible for the flu vaccine and the need for social distancing and infection control measures staff have been working really hard to ensure that everyone will be as safe as possible while receiving their vaccination this year.

"Don't ignore the flu, it's a potentially fatal illness and one that can spread very quickly. If you are eligible for a free flu vaccine and invited to have it, it is important that you take up that offer."

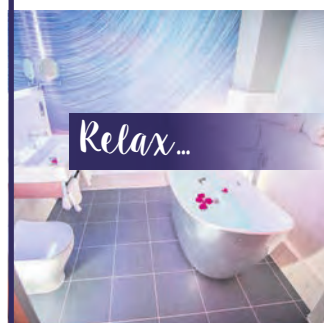

Claire Heneghan chief nurse of NHS West Lancashire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG), added: "Flu should not be underestimated. It is a serious illness and can even be deadly for the most vulnerable of our population."

"The flu vaccination is the best defence we have against the virus. It is vital that those eligible have the vaccine every year as it protects against different strains of flu which can change and evolve each year."

"Having the vaccine is the single best way to protect against flu and will be an important step in preventing not only you, but your family, friends, and colleagues from getting the virus."

For more information or to check eligibility for the flu vaccine, visit: www.nhs.uk/conditions/vaccinations/flu-influenza-vaccine/

Opportunity to get a coronavirus test at Edge Hill University

Report by Henry James

OFFICERS at West Lancashire Borough Council have said they are 'very grateful' to everyone who has followed the advice to self-isolate and get a test if they have had symptoms of the coronavirus.

As residents are facing new restrictions in West Lancashire, the officers added: "It is more important than ever that we all play our part to beat coronavirus."

To help avoid further restrictions, they are asking people to continue to self-isolate and get tested if they have symptoms.

The symptoms, which are now well-known, are: loss/change in sense of smell; loss/change in sense of taste; high temperature; and new continuous cough.

It is free to get a test and if you have symptoms then you can book with the mobile testing unit at Edge Hill University on Thursday, October 1 and Friday, October 2 between 10.30am and 3.30pm by visiting the NHS.uk dedicated Covid-19 testing site.

The testing unit will also be at West Lancashire College in Skelmersdale on Saturday, October 3, Sunday, October 4 and Monday, October 5, also between 10.30am and 3.30pm.

Alternatively they can dial 119. Translation services are available on that number.

The testing unit will be based on the tennis courts on campus and will be signposted.

Testing is available to everyone living in West Lancashire.

People must book in advance in order to get a test, and they will only be able to book from the evening before testing begins.

Councillor Ian Moran, leader of West Lancashire

West Lancashire Borough Council Leader Ian Moran

Borough Council, said: "Coronavirus is a very real risk to everyone in our communities and can affect people of all ages. So we all need to do what we can to reduce the spread."

"Having symptoms of coronavirus can be very worrying, but by self-isolating and getting a test you can protect your family, friends and work colleagues."

Dr Peter Gregory, a local GP and chair at NHS West Lancashire CCG, commented: "As we come towards the colder autumn and winter months, it's more important than ever now that we all play our part to help ensure that we keep control of this virus and help prevent it from spreading."

More information about testing at this site is available online at www.westlancs.gov.uk/covid19test

Aughton Male Voice Choir performing during the Rotary Lockdown Variety Show

Rotary Lockdown Variety Show raises charity funds

Report by Henry James

LOCAL Rotary Clubs are still raising money for charitable causes during the lockdown.

The Rotary clubs of Southport Sunrise; Ormskirk; Ormskirk Clocktower; Maghull & Aughton; Southport; Southport Links; South Sefton; City of Liverpool and Liverpool Exchange, assisted by the Rotary club of Wrexham Glyndwr, joined forces to put together a Rotary Lockdown Variety Show.

The event raised money for Queenscourt Hospice in Southport, Woodlands Hospice in Aintree and Rotary Foundation, an international charitable fund raising money predominantly for the world eradication of polio all money raised for which is matched by Bill Gates, a huge supporter of Rotary internationally.

The show consisted to a large extent of acts showing the amazing talents of various Rotarians but also included a number of surprise contributions, including Alfie Boe and various professional cast members from Les Miserables and also Andrew Lloyd Webber, both also big supporters of Rotary.

The organisers said the “result was a fantastic show, way beyond the original expectations of any of the organisers, and a substantial amount of money has been raised already”.

The show is still available on You Tube, simply search for ‘Rotary Lockdown Variety Show.’

They are asking for a donation of £10 per household (or more if you think it's worth it), payable to “Rotary Club of Southport Sunrise”, account no. 21886037, sort code 40-42-30.

Every single pound will go to the named charities in equal proportions.

In addition to the above, following the death while on a Zoom meeting, of Ormskirk Rotarian, Paul Silcock, a keen amateur photographer, a Calendar Photographic competition is being run, all competition proceeds and calendar sales to go to Rotary Foundation.

The theme is ‘Nature in the Wild’ and the competition is open to anyone but with a maximum of five photographs per person.

There is a prize of a unique trophy for the winner of each month's successful entry.

Remember lives lost to pandemic

THE borough council is asking residents to join them in remembering all those who have been lost to coronavirus.

They are holding a minute's silence with their staff at 11am today (Wednesday, September 30) and they will light up the Clock Tower in Ormskirk and the Lightcube in Skelmersdale from dusk on that day.

Residents can join them or take time during the week at a time to suit them to reflect on the last six months.

Jack's clinches late cup winner for Skem

Skelmersdale United 2
Bootle 1

A CROWD of 250, which is the maximum allowed under current Covid restrictions at the JMO Sports Park witnessed a thrilling FA Cup encounter that was in the balance until the very last kick, writes Neil Leatherbarrow.

Skem took the lead just before the interval, but their rivals from up the M58 fought back and levelled with only eight minutes remaining only for the home side to score the winner four minutes later to set up a home tie against Lancaster City on Saturday.

The game saw a free kick sent close but Skem goalkeeper Ben Barnes tipped the 20 yard shot over his crossbar, before a Ben Hodgkinson shot was turned away by Barnes. For Skem Callum Preston made a surging run that resulted in a shot 25 yards that whistled past the Bootle post.

Five minutes from half-time Skelmersdale went in front when Jack Grimshaw got away down the right and pulled the ball back from the goal line into the heart of the penalty area, and Jason Carey crashed in and with his chest put the ball into the net.

Five minutes after the restart Skem could have doubled their lead but Adegbenro's shot went marginally the wrong side of the far post. The large Bootle contingent drove their team on but a well marshalled home defence limited them to efforts from distance. But with eight minutes to go Barnes made a tremendous save from a close range shot but could only parry the ball away and it fell to a former Skem player Hodgkinson to pounce and equalise from inside the six yard box.

But Skem were not done and on 86 minutes Alex Griffiths overlapped down the right wing and hoisted the ball to the far post, Grimshaw had lost his marker and faced with keeper Jones kept his cool to drive the ball inside the post. Skem's players were jubilant with goalkeeper Barnes running the length of the pitch to join in the celebrations.

● Burscough had no match last weekend and visit Bootle for a league fixture on Saturday.

Tesla boss Elon Musk isn't behind cartoonish plot to take over world

SEAN Connery needn't go sneaking around any hollowed-out volcanoes.

The boss of Tesla isn't behind some cartoonish plot to take over the world – but he is taking some fairly obvious inspiration from another carmaker.

As much as the idea of Elon Musk spending his downtime tending to a white cat and thinking up ever more elaborate ways to have undercover agents “taken care of” fits perfectly with his daytime persona of being a rather avantgarde industrialist, his plans this week to launch a compact Tesla within the next two or three years, which would almost certainly go up against Volkswagen's new ID3, meant that I've finally sussed him out.

Largely because he's managed to get his electric car operation to pretty much exactly where Jaguar was 65 years ago.

The parallels are all there. Tesla started out by tweaking another car company's big-seller – in this case, by turning the Lotus Elise into a zero emissions sports car – in much the same way that Sir William Lyons, Jaguar's founder, made his debut with lavishly trimmed Austin Sevens.

Both have gone on to specialise in making high-end saloons that embarrass Porsches and Aston Martins away from the traffic lights, and both have come up with what they proclaim to be the world's fastest car – in Jaguar's case, the XK120, but Tesla hasn't actually got around to making its much-hyped second-generation Roadster yet.

Yes, I know that Tesla hasn't been anywhere near Le Mans, but being the first company to launch one of its cars into space surely earns them just as many column inches.

Which is why the new compact Tesla fits into this narrative perfectly – it's the Jaguar Mk2, of course!

If the projected price of $25,000 – just under £20,000 in Queen's English, or about the same as a new Astra if you speak fluent petrolhead – is on the money then it genuinely has the potential to shake up the market in much the same as the small Jags did back in the Sixties, which paved the way for all the 3-Series and A4s you see on our motorways today.

Of course the Mk2, as much as I love driving them, isn't the car that most people remember from this period of Jaguar's illustrious history.

That'd be the E-type – which presumably means that somewhere inside the hollowed-out volcano, Tesla's crack team of engineers are already thinking up their own Ferrari-pummelling, bargain-priced sports car for the TikTok generation.

You heard it here first...

David Simister is the editor of Classic Car Weekly

The Model 3 is currently the smallest Tesla - but now it has plans for an even more affordable electric model

The new special editions are inspired by the very first Mazda model

Mazda's new trio of special edition models

MAZDA is marking its 100th anniversary by bringing out a trio of special edition models. The celebration is being marked with new versions of the Mazda3 hatchback, CX-30 crossover and its sports car, the MX-5, which are all given a paint scheme and trim inspired by the company's very first car, the R360 Coupe, and limited to 100 cars each across the UK.

Prices for the special editions start at £29,995 for the Mazda3 and MX-5 and £31,695 for the CX-30. Mazda also says that similar special edition models of the Mazda2, Mazda6 and CX-5 are on the way.
